

If you are sixty years of age or older, you may enroll as an auditor at no cost in any UB course on a space-available basis. Sixty-and-over auditors should not register through the regular registration procedures. Complete the form below and obtain the instructor's signature for the course(s) you wish to audit. Once your registration has been processed, you will receive information on parking, your UB Identification card, and accessing UB's IT systems. For further information, contact the Office of the Registrar at (716) 645-5698.

Refer to the Electronic Class Schedule to view a listing of classes.

Note: Sixty and over auditors who wish to receive telecourse materials will be charged telecourse fees. Web-based courses are excluded from the senior audit program. Exceptions will be considered upon request from New York State residents only.

Note to Instructor: The individual named below wishes to audit classes on a space-available basis under a special program established by the state legislature and administered at the University at Buffalo by the Office of the Registrar. Auditors age sixty and over are not to be charged tuition or fees, not to receive academic credit, not to be graded, and not required to complete academic requirements for such courses. Some courses requiring special, limited facilities, such as labs, may not be open to auditors.
