Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) Information Disclosure Consent

Student Name ___________________________________________ Person Number ______________________

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a Federal Law that protects the privacy of student education records. Schools may disclose, without consent, “directory” information such as a student’s name, address, telephone number, date and place of birth, honors and awards, and dates of attendance. If students do not wish for directory information to be released, UB’s request for non-release of directory information is available at: http://registrar.buffalo.edu/pdfs/directoryRelease-NonRelease.pdf

Schools must have written permission from the student in order to release non-directory information (such as academic or financial information) from a student’s record. However, FERPA allows schools to disclose records without consent to certain parties under certain conditions. More information about FERPA and UB is available at: http://registrar.buffalo.edu/personalinfo/ferpa.php.

By signing this document, I am giving or revoking consent that University at Buffalo officials may discuss the contents of my academic record (including courses, grades, and degree progress) and/or financial record (including student account information and financial aid) with the following parties. I understand that I may revoke consent at any time by submitting a revised form. Additional individuals can be identified by submitting additional forms.

Note: Access to student account information can also be granted by adding an Authorized Payer in your HUB Student Center.
